Over Two Hundred War Veterans Without Tombstones-Can be Had by Asking-State and Federal Governments Supply Stones Free of Cost,

It is estimated that there are fully 500 veterans of the late war buried in the cemeteries about this city whose graves remain unmarked. There is no reason why they should be thus neglected. The federal government will furnish headstones for veterans' graves free of cost on application, and the state of Connecticut does likewise. The stone furnished by this state is larger and, in other respects a much better stone than that furnished by the federal government. It is of American white marble, five feet six inches long and one foot four inches broad and four inches thick. When set it stands two feet six inches above the ground. The soldier's name, the regiment in which he served, and the time of his death are cut into the stone and placed at his grave all at the expense of the state.

There is therefore no excuse for permitting these graves to remain unmarked. To honor the dead heroes is the best possible way to teach patriotism, and the headstones at the graves of the nation's defenders will speak more eloquently to future generations than can the orator, the poet or historian. And aside from this these stones will be of great service-fifty years hence to the historian in search of materlal.

The attention of Admiral Foote post was recently called to the matter by the efforts of a private citizen in this direction. The post appointed a committee to search out and properly mark the neglected graves of soldiers, but it is understood that this committee found that this private citizen was pushing the work so systematically and vigorously that the matter was left in his

Some months ago John G. Chapman of 851 Chapel street discovered that a large number of soldiers' graves remained unmarked, and he immediately began to correct the omission. He has already sent to Hartford applications for seventy-five stones to be placed at the graves of soldlers buried in local cemeteries, and friends of deceased veterans are daily supplying him with data for additional applications. Here is a list of some of those already sent

he Big Meeting Soon to be Held at Savin Rock-The Aims and Objects of the Proposed Perfected Organization-Connecticut Colored Men Not to be Behlud Those of Other States.

In the Connecticut Banner President Peaker of the State Sumner league pubishes the call for the annual meeting of the league, as follows:

To Afro-Americans in the State of Con-

The annual meeting of the State Sumner league will be called at J. W. Stew-art's pavilion, Savin Rock, New Haven, August 22, 1895, at 11 o'clock a. m., at which time we shall consider plans to perfect our organization and keep in line with New York, New Jersey and other states with the ultimate purpose of a national organization for the better curing of our manhood rights.

To assist in the predominance of re publican principles in the state and nation by thorough organization to the end that congress may institute a searching inquiry into the existing evils and violations of law that now prevail in some of the states, particularly in the south. So that each citizen denied his civil and political rights may have proper edress through the federal courts. Denial of civic and political rights has naturally led to abuses of another character equally at variance with the letter and spirit of our constitutions-such as mob and lynch law in the north and east as well as in the south; for of enders of all the south, from petit lar eny to homicide, and to the degradation of labor through class legislation of the most flagrant character, and through the tyrannical action of trades mions. So that the constitutional right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, as well as the national right to earn a living, is seriously menaced. Concentrating our strength in organization will enable us to secure such le gal redress as the constitution guaranees. It will at least show that we are not willing to be robbed and hoodwinked by politicians at will or to be lynched by the mob and to be denied the right to earn a living by organized conspir-

The fact that 2,000,000 citizens are practically without representation in the federal congress and in the state legislatures and are inadequately represented in the elective and appointed offices of a minor degree in all the states while serving as a basis of representaion in each of the southern states, we regard as more than sufficient reason o warrant us in seeking to perfect our organization. While having more than ,000 votes in this state and having polled the decisive vote for the republican party in the past, we have been utterly ignored, and to allow this condition to remain without a protest would be wanton indifference on our part. There fore we believe that by proper and thorough organization we can secure all the rights which it is fair and honorable to

Regarding the objects of the convenons recently held under the auspices of the colored voters, Mr. Peaker thus expressed himself: In the first place, I want you to say that the impression that we (the colored people of the north) are bringing about this movement for the purpose of de serting the republican party is entirely rroneous, and I may add does us ar injustice. Take, for instance, the state of New York, which has 45,000 colored oters, one-quarter of which are democrats. In that state the men who are at the back of the movement are republi-

The same may be said of each of the backing the movement are thoroughly mbued with the republican party, bu you may also say that should the lead ers of the party get the ship away from her moorings, a state of affairs I do not anticipate, however, ther ewould be a oncerted movement in the organization which they are founded and act upor what will be to the advantage of the race, socially, morally and politically. Mr. Peaker says that the convention of August 22 proposes to perfect an organization having for its object the anding together of Afro-Americans of this state for mutual improvement, to secure as far as possible among memers of the race a pure ballot and to demand for them just and equitable treatment in all industrial, civil and po litical matters. The officers of the league are: Presilent, Joseph P. Peaker of New Haven vice president, W. B. Edwards of Hart-ford; secretary, F. G. Shadman of East Hampton; recording secretary, E. B. Freeman of Hariford; treasurer, Richard H. Hamilton of Hartford, chairman I the executive committee, Rev. A. P.

day, bound for Boston.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.] Are not women naturally as lighthearted, brave, and hopeful as men?
Yes; but woman's organism is different from man's.

Women in per-fect or good health are rarely victims of this symptom. Women nearly monopolize the blues, because their peculiar ailments When the female organs fall to perform their functions properly, when the dreaded female complaints appear, there is shownnervousness, sleeplessness, faint-ness, backache, headache, bearing-down pains, etc., causing the dreaded "let-me-alone" and "all-gone" feel-

"all-gone" feelings.

When the woman does not understand what the matter is, and her doctor can not or will not tell her, she grows morose and melancholy; that's the blues.

Mrs. Newton Cobb, of Manchester, O., says: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct all this trouble. I cannot praise it enough. I am pleased to tell every one that it cured me; and if it will cure me, why not others? I am sure my case was severe enough." It will.
